Volumes 1-7 on sale

Well, we're officially caught up now
Still, please support the official versions when they come out.
They're really not expensive.

Just for fun
I attempted to make tamagoyaki for the first time ever with literally the first instructions I found on Google
Nagato, how did you mess this up?!

I'm here!!

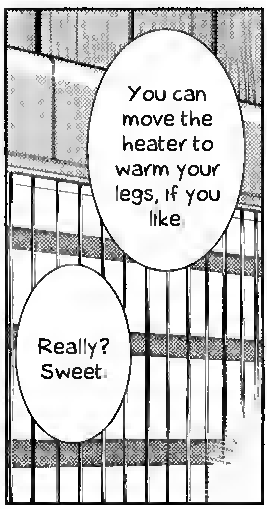
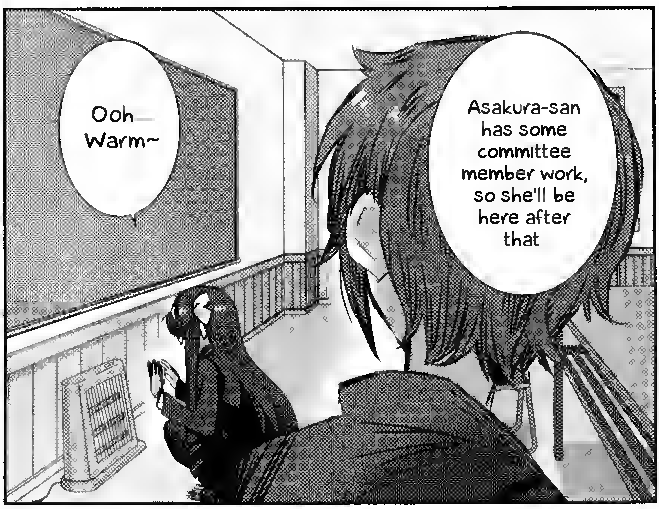
Hello.

Oh? It's rare to see just you, Yuki.
Yeah. They both have some work to do today.



You can move the heater to warm your legs, if you like.
Really? Sweet.



Ooh— Warm~
Asakura-san has some committee member work, so she'll be here after that.

How's that? Are you warm too, Koizumi-kun?
Yes.
I appreciate your concern for me
Phew
It's fine. You were cold too, right, Koizumi-kun?

Yuki? What are you reading so diligently?

This booklet just screams "handmade "

Good luck!
Well, it's just like it says on the cover
A bunch of household staple foods, eh?
子供の野菜嫌いをなくそう!!
ピーマンの肉詰め
A lot of stuff you'd pack into lunch boxes, though

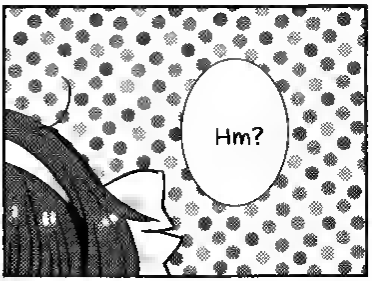
Y-yeah



Hm?

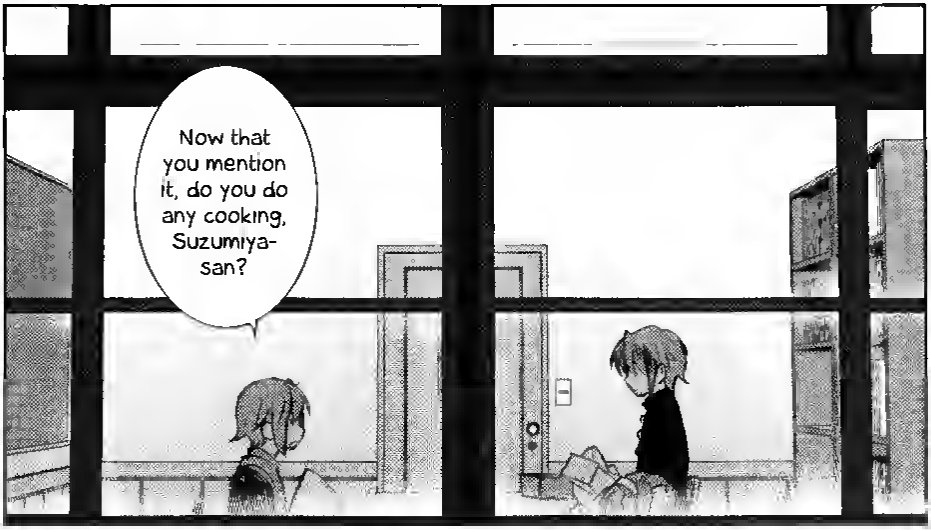
Yuki? You're learning how to cook?

Heya

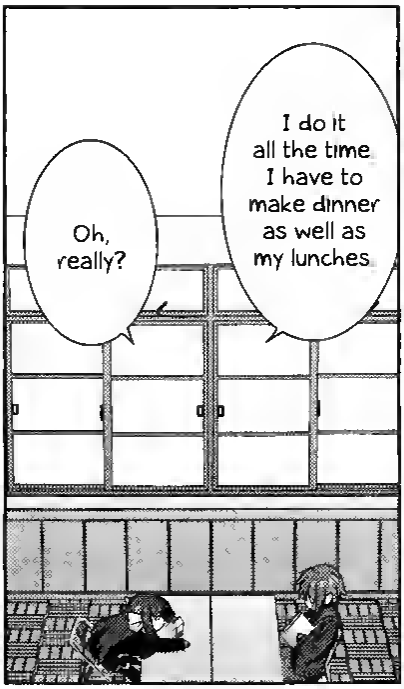
Well, Asakura-san's making them, and I help out...
Ohh, you're making lunches for him
I see...
Well, honestly, it's kind of mysterious why Ryouko's making it, but that's nice...
She's leaving a little part at a time to me, so she gave me these to try to make myself.
Asakura-san (Ed.) Easy Collection

You can never be too good at cooking, right, Koizumi-kun?
Yes, quite so.

Hm.
Here's the manual.
Actually, I just opened this one...
What game is that?



Now that you mention it, do you do any cooking, Suzumiya-san?



I do it all the time. I have to make dinner as well as my lunches.
Oh, really?

Me?

My mother...

I say that, but...
My mom-

She always eyeballs the amount of seasoning she needs, so each time the flavor's different.
It's her sense of taste. It's a little off.

So good...
When I was a kid, I thought the school's cafeteria food was the best
But...
But what was really good...
Was when I tried to cook things for myself

Well, that's how I got started with cooking
Just a word of advice, Yuki...

Before you know it, you'll get it down.
It's absolutely true that experience is the best teacher.
It takes daily diligence.

Keep at it!
You want him to eat good things right?
Good luck!

Yeah...

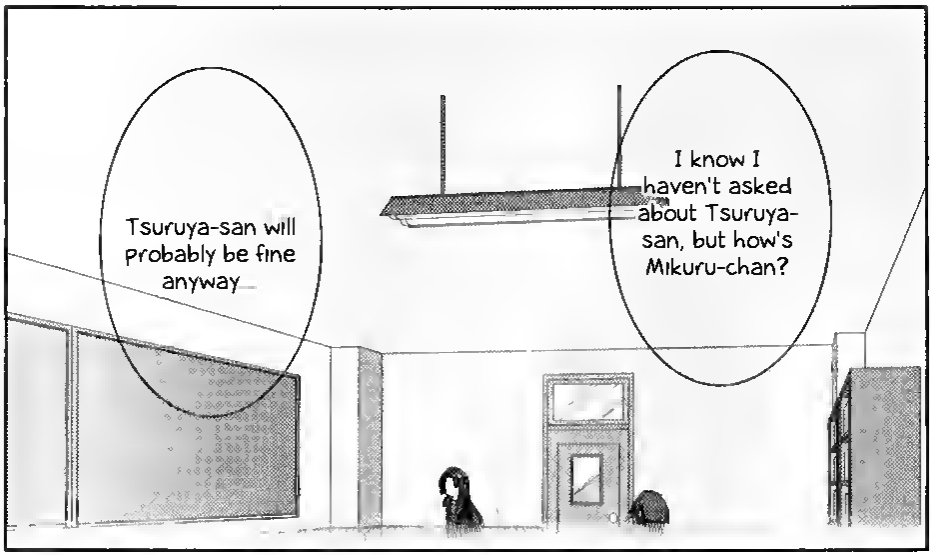
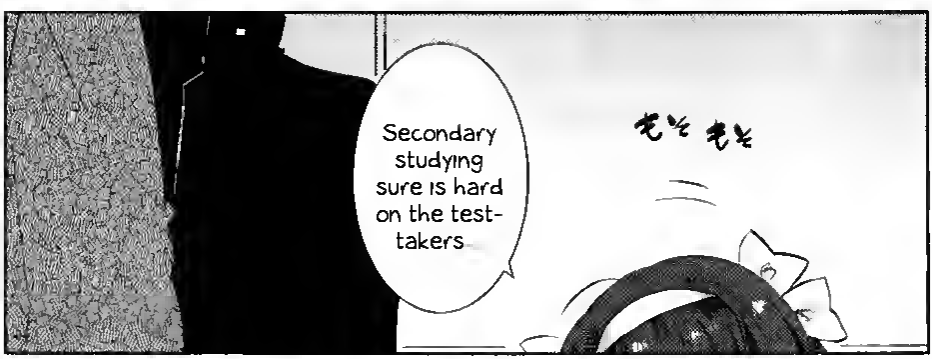
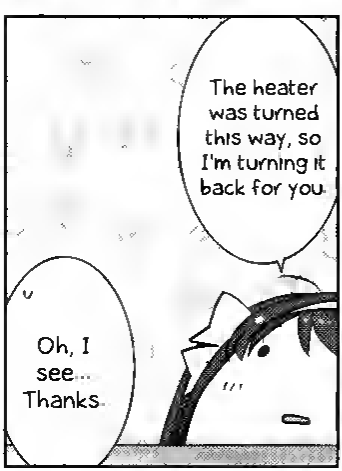
Gather the three Pigs together, and the wolf...
Amm ...
Oooh... Cold cold...
ガチャ
I got caught up in a conversation with Tsuruya-senpai
It is January...
She should be doing her admissions exams right now...



Tsuruya-san will probably be fine anyway
I know I haven't asked about Tsuruya-san, but how's Mikuru-chan?



Secondary studying sure is hard on the test-takers
そそ そそ

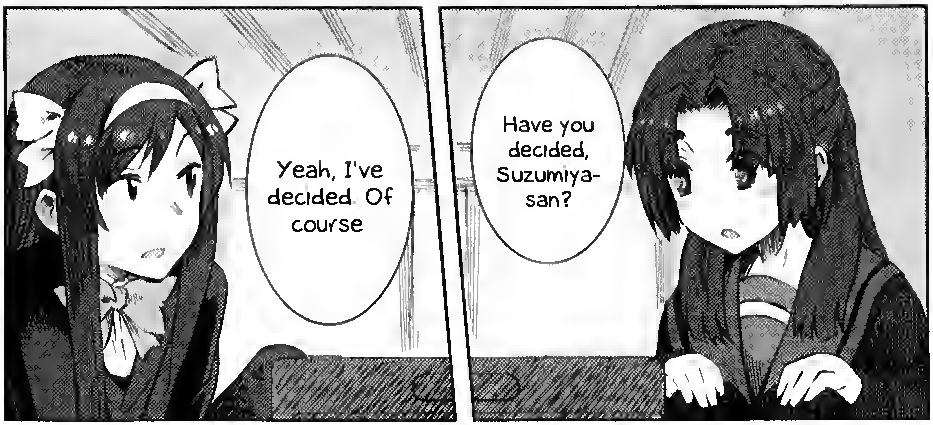


The heater was turned this way, so I'm turning it back for you
Oh, I see... Thanks

I suppose
Wait, what are you doing?
ガッタン
ガッタン

Is this way okay?
It will warm everyone this way, right?
...Moving on, huh?
Oh, yeah... Are you moving on to a university, Ryouko?
...Hmm That's true
It's best to decide early whether you'd like to go.

Whather I'd like to go, huh?



Yeah, I've decided. Of course
Have you decided, Suzumiya-san?

Yes, I suppose I have University
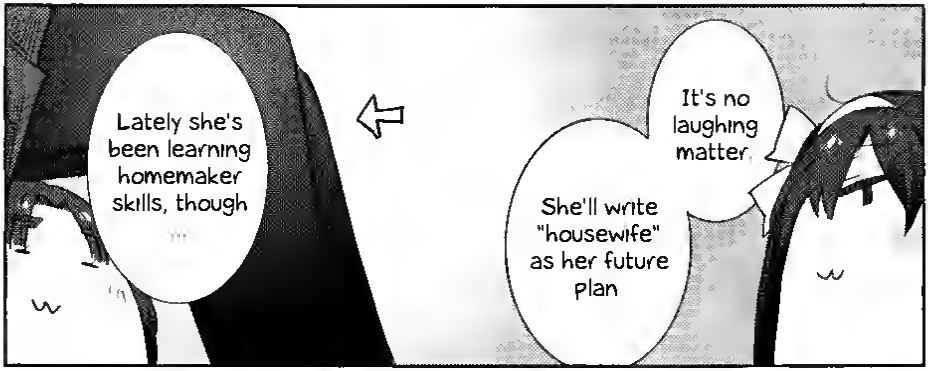
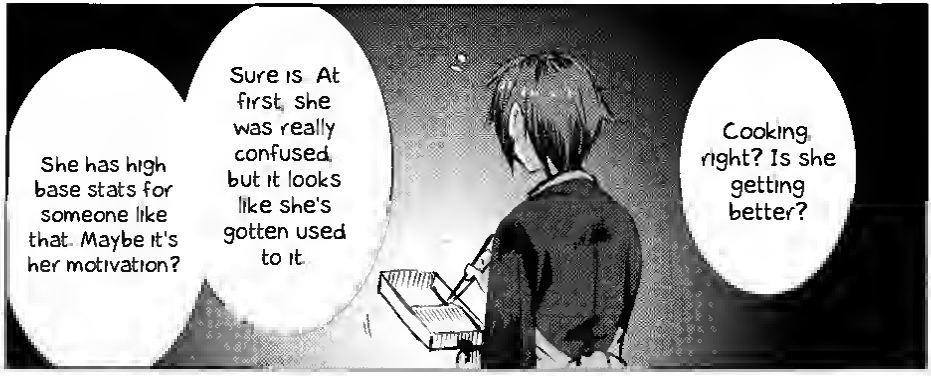
About?
Koizumi-kun, have you decided?

Not really, I've just decided early
You two are really thinking about this, huh?
Ahaha...
If you leave Kyon to himself, he'll definitely put it off until the last minute



Lately she's been learning homemaker skills, though
It's no laughing matter.
She'll write "housewife" as her future plan



She has high base stats for someone like that. Maybe it's her motivation?
Sure is. At first, she was really confused, but it looks like she's gotten used to it.
Cooking, right? Is she getting better?

Huh?
I think it's important to understand human nutrition!
Well, I won't say that she should do this after she starts dating

Oh?
Ahh
Hm?
She hasn't noticed?
Oh, well. Let's continue that game with Koizumi-kun.

Strange girl...
Huh?
Have you decided what to make?
Oh, sorry... No, I haven't.

Ah, not good!
You're running a fever!

They went home quickly.

I'm going out shopping for a bit.
OKaaay.
